REMARKS

25X1X

1. Between 3 and 5 December 1953, [REDACTED] the guard battalion of the State Secretariat for State Security (SFS) was stationed at the former Unteroffiziersschule in Potsdam. The battalion which was subordinate to the SFS Bezirk administration in Potsdam headed by Lieutenant Colonel Wagner, consisted of three companies of which the third company was organized in October 1953 and consisted of 60 men. The members of the guard battalion had signed up for a period of three years; however, it appeared that many soldiers would re-enlist after that period.¹ 25X1X

4. The guard battalion has detached two officers to the SFS Bezirk administration. At intervals of two hours, these officers control guards in Potsdam. Results of the control had to be transmitted by telephone to the duty officer of the battalion. Since 1 November a detail of one NCO and eight EM has been detached to Prieros near Koenigswusterhausen for guard missions at the local rest house used by high ranking government functionaries. The detail is released every two weeks.
5. During the reporting period there were three alert stages in force with the guard battalion. The three stages were referred to as "Biene" (bee), "Hummel" (bumblebee) and "Hornisse" (hornet). There were the following commanders of the guard:

Lieutenant Colonel Wagner, chief of the SFS Bezirk administration;

Lieutenant Colonel Koenig, deputy to Wagner;

Senior Lieutenant Raschmann, CO of the guard battalion;

Lieutenant Gera, 1st adjutant of the guard battalion;

Captain Witte, commandant of the military prison;

Senior Lieutenant Rose, deputy to Witte. ²

6. Other guard units of the SFS included a regiment each in Berlin, Halle, and Erfurt.³
7. On occasion of the large-scale search operations for the Czech refugees in October 1953, 50 men of the guard battalion led by Senior Lieutenants Diwiszeck and Klemm were employed in the Rangsdorf area south of the autobahn. The detail was to prevent the Czechs from reaching Berlin.
